

Dear Transplant Recipient:

Keola, a beloved husband, and father, was a kind, generous, cheerful person. He would want the memories of him to be happy times, filled with joy, good food, and the laughter of friends and family. Always smiling, he brought the Aloha spirit to all who met him and was dearly loved by many.

"I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
of happy memories that I leave when life is done."
